HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL
SPRING TRAINING

February 26 - April 22, 2012

HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL SPRING TRAINING PROGRAM EXPERIENCE SPRING TRAINING LIKE THE PROS

VERO BEACH SPORTS VILLAGE™, as the former longtime spring training home of the Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers, was designed to give teams the opportunity to train, live and play together—in a unique environment where athletes could develop their skills to the highest level. Now a multi-sport training venue for athletes of all ages, VERO BEACH SPORTS VILLAGE is available for your team.

Our highly dedicated staff has over one hundred years of combined experience attending to the needs of professional sports teams, and can offer your high school team a spring training experience that is unique from any other available. From the moment your team arrives until it is time to leave, you will be immersed in a world that was created for one purpose, to BUILD A CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM.

"The facilities, accommodations, umpiring, dining hall and competition were top notch. Our parents were blown away with the facility and treatment that we received during our stay."

- Jeff Paul, Coach- Bloomington Central Catholic H.S.

"Facilities were great. Game schedule was excellent. We loved it and would love to come back next spring and stay on site at your facility. Vero Beach had everything we needed for our spring break trip at an affordable price. We look forward to spending every spring there."

- Scott Willard, Head Coach-Scott County High School

THE HISTORY OF VERO BEACH SPORTS VILLAGE

This pioneering approach to team and player development came to life in 1948 when the then Brooklyn Dodgers moved to an abandoned naval base in beautiful Indian River County on the Treasure Coast of Florida. For more than 60 years, VERO BEACH SPORTS VILLAGE served as the spring training home for Hall of Fame legends such as Walter Alston, Roy Campanella, Don Drysdale, Sandy Koufax, Tommy Lasorda, Pee Wee Reese, Jackie Robinson, Duke Snider and Don Sutton.
